

Mayville State University Welcomes Dr. Emily Knox

In recognition of Banned Books Week, Mayville State University's Byrnes-Quanbeck Library and Office of Diversity and Inclusion are hosting guest faculty member, Dr. Emily Knox from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Emily is an assistant professor in the School of Information Sciences at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Emily recently edited Trigger Warnings: History, Theory Context, published by Rowman & Littlefield. Emily's book, Book Banning in 21st Century America, was also published by Rowman & Littlefield and is the first monograph in the Beta Phi Mu Scholars' Series.

Emily serves on the boards of the Freedom to Read Foundation and the National Coalition Against Censorship.

See <http://emilyknox.net> for more information.

Agenda Friday, September 29th

- 9:00 – 9:45 AM – Dr. Erin Kunz's class (Freedom to research, write, and share information in the 21st century)
- 10:00 – 10:50 AM – Keynote, "Censorship and the Power of Reading" - Classroom Auditorium
- 11:00 – 11:50 PM – Dr. Erin Kunz's class (Freedom to research, write, and share information in the 21st century)
- 12:00 – 12:50 PM – Lunch and Learn: Conversations with Emily – Casual Q&A and continued conversation B-Q Library Quiet Room (lunch provided*)
- 1:00 – 1:50 PM – Banned and Challenged Books in our schools and libraries (open to all – EDUC Rm 114)
- 2:00 – 2:50 PM – Banned Book Read-Out (everyone welcome to participate and/or listen) Library Quiet Room (refreshments provided*). This is a celebration of our right to read regardless of content. Bring your own book, or choose one from the library and read your favorite excerpt.
- 3:00 – 3:50 PM – Coffee with staff & faculty. Focus on intellectual freedom, free speech and racism on our campuses and across society.

 Lunch and refreshments sponsored by The Office of Diversity and Inclusion and/or the Byrnes-Quanbeck Library*